

February 1, 2010

NEW YORK: Snowfall during January was heavy while temperatures were often below normal. Major activities included caring for livestock, spreading manure, grading and packing potatoes, onions, apples and cabbage. Winter meetings and trade shows were well attended.