

January 3, 2011

NEW YORK: Cold, snowy weather hindered outside activities and daily chores. Producers were kept busy repairing machinery and removing snow. Major activities included caring for livestock, spreading manure, grading and packing potatoes, onions, apples and cabbage. Winter meetings and trade shows were well attended.